

Seminars 2023/2024

"Sustainable and climate risks finance considerations in financial markets",

Professor Lavinia Rognone
(within Management Accounting by professor Aureli)

12 December 2023, 3-4 pm, Alberti 2

"Hard and soft information in bank lending: how do banks evaluate corporate creditworthiness?"

Professor Stefano Filomeni,
(within Management Accounting by Professor Selena Aureli)

6 December 2023, 3-4 pm, room Teatini 2

Michele Sapucci (professor Farneti)
29 November 2023, 4-7 pm, Angherà 3

Pietro Tommasini (professor Galletti)
From Transactions to Financial Reports: Exploring Accounting Software

6 November 2023, 9.30 am - 12.30, Alberti 6

Seminars 2022/2023

The individual courses within which external guests held seminars in 2022/2023 were:

- Organization and Leadership: seminar on Team Work held by Prof. Katrine Biering Sonnenschein from the BI Norwegian Business School
- Business Administration and Accounting

The seminars for all FINMA students were:

- "Sustainability: the contributions companies can make" held by Prof. Mara Del Baldo from the University of Urbino during the Welcome Week

- "Trends and opportunities in corporate finance and service sector" held by Anna Del Prete from Camera di Commercio during the Welcome Week

- the module “Future leaders: soft skills for agile thinkers in a complex world” held by Dr Federica Salvatori and Dr Tim Goudriaan

During this module, composed of three seminars, some of the different interactive activities the students had the opportunity to experience were:

- the use of design thinking to go from the idea of a product (wallet/wallet) to its realization/prototype
- understand how to listen to others and how to emphasize (through exercises in pairs and in circles)