When do lessons begin?

Lessons will start from 03/10/2016 at all the Romagna CLA sites.

Who is eligible to attend these courses?

The Italian language courses are available for:

- international exchange students at Bologna University on programmes such as Erasmus+, Erasmus Mundus, Overseas etc.
- international students enrolled at Bologna University, who attend one of the following courses: a 'Laurea' (First cycle degree), a 'Laurea Magistrale' (Second cycle degree or Single cycle), a PhD, Specialization schools, 'Master Universitari' (Vocational programmes), an 'Alta Formazione' course or a single course.
- other students admitted on the basis of special agreements.

Courses are offered at the following levels:

- A1- absolute beginners: self-learning course with the assistance of a tutor + 15 hours in class.
- A2- elementary: 40 hours in the classroom + 10 hours of guided self-Learning.
- B1- intermediate: 40 hours of lessons in the classroom + 10 hours of guided self-learning.

ECTS credits

Students who attend at least 70% of the classroom lessons and pass the final test, are allocated 5 ECTS credits. In order to obtain these credits an exchange student must insert in their study plan the code which corresponds to the course they intend to follow, as indicated in 'studenti online':

- Italiano A1 – Course code: 38653
- Italiano A2 – Course code: 38655
- Italiano B1 – Course code: 38656

The evaluation of the end-of-course test will be expressed in terms of "idoneo" or "non idoneo" (pass/fail); no specific marks or percentages will be given.
