

QUALITY ASSURANCE COMMITTEE OF THE MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAM IN ARCHAEOLOGY AND ANCIENT CULTURES

NOTICE FOR STUDENTS ENROLLED IN THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2025/2026

The Master's Degree Program in Archaeology and Ancient Cultures has undergone a revision of its curriculum starting with the cohort of students enrolled in the academic year 2025/2026.

The program is now identified with a new code: 6702 (code 8855 refers instead to the same degree program in previous years).

The revision of the curriculum involves a new numerical coding of all the courses within the program and a renewed didactic design spread across the two years of study. Students enrolled in the academic year 2025/2026 can view their study plan at the following pages:

- ACRA:
<https://corsi.unibo.it/magistrale/archeologia/insegnamenti/piano/2025/6702/B67/000/2025>

In the study plan, all second-year courses appear with the note "not active for the academic year 2025/2026." These courses will be made available almost entirely in the academic year 2026/2027, when students who enrolled in 2025/2026 will reach their second year.

If, on the other hand, the note "not active for the academic year 2025/2026" appears next to a first-year course, it means that the course will not actually be offered in the upcoming academic year 2025/2026.

The program coordinator remains available for any questions regarding courses marked as "not active for the academic year 2025/2026" at: andrea.gaucci3@unibo.it.
