

Campus Emilia-Romagna Welcomes Europe

WHO'S IT FOR?

The Campus "Emilia-Romagna Welcomes Europe" is for students from European cinema schools.

WHERE IS IT?

It will be in Rimini during the Amarcort Film Festival 2018, from 14 to 18 November.

WHAT'S THE PROGRAM?

It will be based on a day of theoretical study:

- Lesson on Federico Fellini's work
- "Being able to watch a movie" (critics, evaluation, taste)
- Visual language and its evolution

During the remaining days, the students will work in group to realize a short movie: they will be given a title, a location to compulsorily use and a series of actors and background actors.

At the end of the Campus, the short movie made will be projected during the awarding ceremony of the Amarcort Film Festival 2018.

The students will also be the jury for the Experimental Movies section.

WHO ARE THE TEACHERS?

Lectures will be given by:

Nicola bassano (Federico Fellini expert for the City of Rimini)

Luca Elmi (Director and Actor)

Simone Felici (Videomaker)

HOW TO SIGN UP?

You can sign up by mailing scuole@amarcort.it and stating your name, surname and attended school.