

Neocolonialism and land grabbing: the case of Western Sahara

Wednesday 7th May, h. 14-17

AULA GERSHEVITCH, Palazzo Verdi, Via Giuseppe Pasolini, 23 - Ravenna

Introductory remarks

Silvia Bagni, Amilcare D'Andrea, Massimiliano Galanti

Speakers

Fatima Mahfud, representative of the Fronte Polisario in Italy

Ivan Lisanti, Rete Saharawi

With the support of ANPI constituency of Ravenna "Natalina Vacchi"

Screening of the documentary The Sand Wire (2024)

Wednesday 7th May, h. 18-20

Casa delle Culture, Piazza Medaglie D'Oro 4 Ravenna

A wire of sand unites the Saharawis with planet Earth.

The future of a people, whose destiny is suspended between war and desert, in search of a denied independence, walks this fragile thread.

The documentary tells how, in the harshest desert in the world, every day they fight for the present in the hope of a future that never comes.

with the participation of:

the director Tommaso Valente

the protagonists of the documentary Giulia Olmi and Claudio Cantù

Fatima Mahfud, representative of the Fronte Polisario in Italy

A convivial moment is planned at the end of the presentation

