

SECOND CYCLE DEGREE PROGRAM IN INTERNATIONAL POLITICS AND ECONOMICS

Students enrolled in the second cycle degree program International Politics and Economics write the dissertation in English and don't have to submit neither the "nulla osta" nor the summary in Italian.

HOW TO CHOOSE THE SUPERVISOR

Teachers of course units can be supervisors of dissertation. the student has to graduate in a course included in the teaching plan of the degree program LM IPE cod.5702. If a student would like to graduate in a course not included in his/her teaching plan, he/she has to ask the authorization to the Coordinator of the Degree program before starting to write the dissertation. This request has to be submitted to IPE Program coordinator (email: didatticaforli.lmipe@unibo.it) and the request is considered accepted if the student after 15 days has not received any communication.

SECOND READER

The name of the second reader has to be indicated in the online application of the dissertation. If no second reader has been indicated, he/she will be chosen by the offices on the basis of the composition of the graduation committee. If the graduating student would like to propose a second reader external to Unibo, the supervisor has to send a formal request by e-mail to didatticaforli.lmipe@unibo.it with the curriculum vitae of the expert external to Unibo.

THESIS MARK

The graduating committee can assign from 0 to 6 points to the thesis of Master degree.

The degree average is calculated in the following way
