

Lifesciences Consultants (LSC)

We are delighted to invite you to join the selection process at LSC for a position of Business Analyst Strategic Consultant.

Although we understand you may not be familiar with LSC, we do believe we represent a unique professional opportunity for candidates of your caliber. LSC was founded in 2004 and is a global consulting boutique specialized in Pharma and Biotech. We serve leading multinational Pharmaceutical and Biotech organizations like Pfizer, Sanofi, Novartis, Roche and Large Biotech like Biogen or smaller entities. Our business is almost entirely developed in Global or Regional Headquarters (Switzerland, East and West Coast, key cities in Emerging Markets) from Milan, and our projects normally deal with innovative product launch or commercial issues. Our assignments require analytical and strategic skills and are always delivered in a truly experienced international environment.

We happen to have our European Office headquartered in Milan and we have been truly successful in training and specializing our junior associates into recognized industry experts and sought-after consultants. Many of our senior people today have shared their career with us in the last 10 years, and we have now a significant community of alumni working in industry, finance or other services sectors.

Beside competitive salary bands, we believe we offer a unique opportunity to work in a truly global environment, to join a recognized center of excellence for managerial capabilities in our sector of choice, and we commit to an intense and focused training which is at the basis of a rewarding and fast-growing career. As our assignments are truly global, so is our staffing – and our associates very soon reap the benefit of such a challenging exposure.
