METHODS OF ASSESSMENT

If students are considered to have satisfactory skills and competences according to the evaluation of their submitted documents, they have immediate access to the degree programme. In particular: for those who have a University degree like that described at Point 1 of section ‘Eligible candidates and admission requirements’, the adequacy of their competence is assumed as already proved by having obtained a final grade (voto di laurea) equal or higher than 96/110.

If students’ skills and competences are not completely satisfactory according to the evaluation of their submitted documents, they will be asked to undergo an interview/oral examination dealing with the subject “Aspects of personal well-being”.

The results will be available on \textit{Studenti Online} after each Intake (see schedule). Check regularly your e-mail address \texttt{name.surname@unibo.it} and the university portal \textit{Studenti online}.
