THE DEPARTMENT OF LEGAL STUDIES (DSG)

LEGS LLM Programme is held by the Department of Legal Studies (DSG) of the University of Bologna, one of Europe's most relevant Law Schools.

It has been ranked as the 42nd-best law school in the world (QS World University Rankings 2023), the 1st one in Italy, and confirmed as one of the “Outstanding Law Schools” by the Italian Ministry for University (2023-2027).

THE LL.M. PROGRAMME IN LEGAL STUDIES

LEGS is a 2-year (post-grad) Programme forming graduates for careers in legal advisory requiring a supranational perspective (i.e., international institutions, public agencies, NGOs, corporations, and law firms).

LEGS provides robust legal skills focusing on a large array of law subjects (=> courses, seminars, laboratories, moot courts, etc.) along with a multidisciplinary approach.

LEGS' BACKGROUND & CULTURAL HERITAGE

- 1) Studying law in English as a cultural and professional choice.
- 2) Openness to the world and different legal systems.
- 3) Facing complexity, the jurist as a problem solver in a fast-changing environment (=> "transition").
- 4) Integration between academic-professional knowledge and soft skills.
- 5) Studying law at the “Bologna’s School of Law.”

WHY LEGS?

LEGS is a master's degree designed to:

- study law with a rigorous methodology;
- build up your study plan by choosing amongst several courses, seminars, and other activities;
- offer a truly international environment, together with students from all over the world;

WHY LEGS?

LEGS is a master's degree designed to:

- benefit professional experiences through a curricular internship (or final thesis-based internship) and moot courts;
- experience study Exchange Programs (Erasmus+; Overseas);
- reach proficiency in one of the 2nd year's tracks:
 - Global and Transnational Legal Culture;
 - Human Rights and Social Justice;
 - Law, Economics and Finance.
