The LLM in Legal Studies (LEGS) is a 2-year Master Programme forming graduates for careers in legal advisory operating in the international context or requiring a supranational perspective (international institutions, public agencies, NGOs, corporations and law firms).

The programme provides strong theoretical/practical legal skills and a multidisciplinary approach to the law. Study exchanges abroad and internships are included.

1st year Students' will gain the possibility to choose either a stronger knowledge of legal foundations or to go deeper into the law subjects, or a mix of both 2nd year provides three different tracks: Global and Transnational Legal Culture; Law, Economics and Finance; Human Rights, and Social Justice.

Key benefits

- High quality lectures held by distinguished resident and international scholars and practitioners.
- Development of strong theoretical and practical legal skills.
- Multidisciplinary approach to the legal studies.
- Extensive study exchanges programmes (Erasmus+, Overseas).
- Internship and training periods.
- Proficiency in Global and Transnational Legal Culture; Law, Economics and Finance; Human Rights, and Social Justice.
- Unrivaled location in one of the largest well-preserved medieval city center in Europe. Bologna boasts a vibrant cultural and social life and an emerging creative economy.

Admission

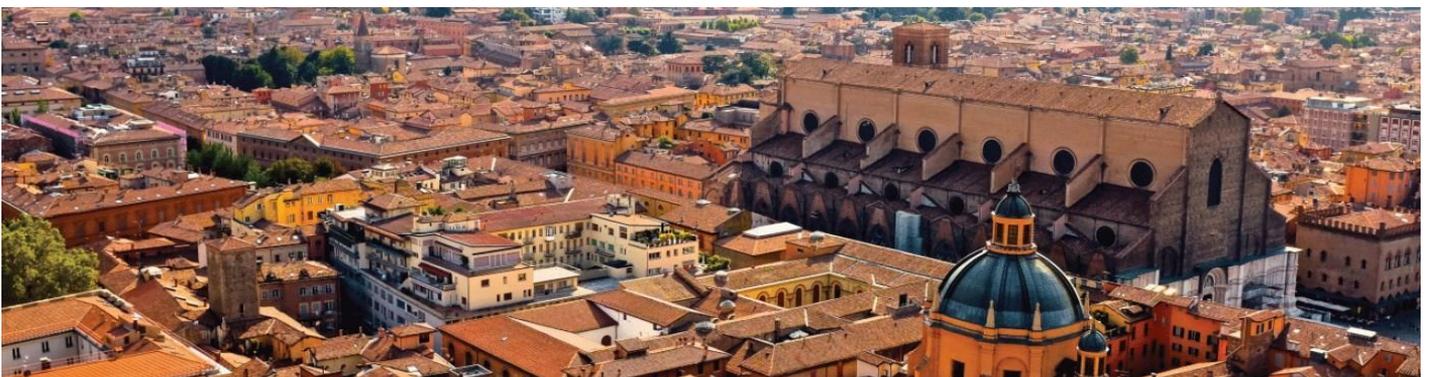

Students will be selected on the quality of their academic background, even if not entirely focused on the law field, skills, and motivation.

The Department of Legal Studies is recognized as one of the best 100 Law Schools in the world (QS Top Universities 2021), and it has been awarded as Outstanding Academic Department by the Ministry for University (2018-2022).

The University of Bologna, founded in 1088, is renowned as the most ancient university of the Western World, and it has been a reference for the growth of the European culture over the Centuries.

Nowadays, it is part of many international networks across the world promoting education and scientific development and supporting exchange programmes for teachers, researchers, and students.
