THE CHOICE

A PLAY BY MARCO CORTESI
AND MARA MOSCHINI

WHAT WOULD YOU HAVE DONE?

Based on the journalistic work by
Svetlana Broz

In collaboration with
Stefano Bianchini

Two narrators, a man and a woman, four true stories of courage from one of the most atrocious and inhumane conflicts of our times: the war that violently dismembered Yugoslavia between 1991 and 1995.

Collected during the Bosnian Conflict by Svetlana Broz (grandson of Josip Broz, head of the Yugoslav government, better known by the name of "Tito") and performed by Marco Cortesi and Mara Moschini, these four true stories are extraordinary examples of heroism, civil courage and humanity.

The play (with more than 250 performances all over Italy so far and an extraordinary success from attendance and critique) has been inspired by the interviews included in the book of Svetlana Broz "Good People in an Evil Time" and elaborates in a vivid and effective way 4 true stories of people whose life was suddenly put under risk, 4 stories of people who risked their life to save unknown persons – belonging to different ethnic groups.

Thanks to the collaboration with ERMA (European Regional Master's Degree in Democracy and Human Rights in South East Europe), IECOB (Institute for Central-Eastern and Balkan Europe), MIREES (Master's of Art in Interdisciplinary Research and Studies on Eastern Europe) and the support of Stefano Bianchini, "The Choice" is has become a documentary-film for international audiences.
