

GEOPOLITICAL COMPETITION UNDER OTHER NAME: DEVELOPMENT POLICY IN MULTILATERAL SECURITY ORGANIZATIONS

La Lezione è aperta a tutti gli studenti ed è parte del Corso di SVIC (International Organizations and Governance of Development) delivered by Professor E. Capannelli

Speaker: Dr Emiliano Alessandri

VENERDI 5
APRILE
09.00-11.00

SALA POETI
(PALAZZO HERCOLANI)

TO KNOW MORE ABOUT THE TALK

Development is as much a political as an economic issue and its governance has always been marked by competition among international actors representing and advancing different interests, models, and agendas. The talk will address the development policy in international organizations such as NATO and OSCE, touching upon the development-security nexus

TO KNOW MORE ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dr. Emiliano Alessandri is an international security practitioner with over fifteen years of experience. Has worked in the Office of the Secretary General of the OSCE and was senior transatlantic fellow with the German Marshall Fund of the United States. He is currently teaching on European security at the Central European University. He holds a PhD in transatlantic history from Cambridge University, an MA in international affairs from SAIS/Johns Hopkins University, and a BA in International and Diplomatic Sciences from the University of Bologna